

For questions 1 – 15, read the text below and look carefully at each line. Some of the lines are correct and some have a word that should not be there. If a line is correct, put a tick (✓) by the number. If a line has a word which should not be there, write the word down. There are two examples at the beginning (0 and 00).

STUDYING AWAY FROM HOME

- | | | |
|------------|----|--|
| the | 0 | If you're thinking of going away to study, your choice of |
| ✓ | 00 | accommodation will be very important. You may be lucky |
| | 1 | enough to have the chance of to staying with relatives. |
| | 2 | However, this can bring problems as well as advantages. |
| | 3 | Family life may well distract you away from your studies, and |
| | 4 | there will also be the question of what you should pay your |
| | 5 | relatives. No matter how caring they may be and no matter |
| | 6 | how much they will want you with them, they won't expect to keep |
| | 7 | you for nothing. Paying too much or too little can be easily |
| | 8 | lead you to bad feeling but setting the right amount can be |
| | 9 | tricky and be embarrassing. You should also consider |
| | 10 | the matter of satisfying the grant authorities. They may |
| | 11 | distrust an arrangement between relatives and finish up |
| | 12 | paying you less than you need. Believe it or not, there's |
| | 13 | a strange idea that if you're living in with relatives it |
| | 14 | costs nothing either for you or for them. Lodging with |
| | 15 | strangers can often be the best arrangement after at all. |
